

Narbonne Going Academic, PTA Board Told

"Narbonne is becoming an academic school, with more students going to college," Mr. Herbert Morey, principal, told members of the Narbonne High PTA executive board at a business meeting the first week of school. School enrollment is 2231, with a faculty of 94. Mrs. Evelyn Price, girls' vice principal, announced plans for an orientation night for parents of B-10 students, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

A rummage sale will be held Oct. 9, 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the House of Rummage, 12 and Pacific Sts., San Pedro. Donations of clothing and household items for the sale may be left with either Mrs. Vier Lowry, chairman, 26846 Regent Ave., Lomita, or Mrs. Virgil Bunn, 121 Via Pasqual, Palos Verdes Estates, or Mrs. Richard Owings, 26829 Daplegrey Ln., Rolling Hills.

The resignation of Mrs. D. C. Cheek as auditor was accepted. A past president, she is moving with her husband to Pohenix, Arizona. Mrs. Earl Burris was appointed by Mrs. David P. Goolsby, president, to represent Narbonne PTA on the Palos Verdes Coordinating Council. Mrs. Ed Holloway was ratified as hospitality chairman for 1959-60.

Narbonne will be host to Gateway Council Oct. 5 at 10 a.m. The first meeting of the association is planned for Oct. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Invitations to PTA membership will be sent parents during the special membership week of Oct. 5 to 12.

Pot Lucks Held by Harbor PTA

Two pot luck luncheons were held by the Harbor City School PTA board members recently.

The first at Lomita Park acquainted the new board members and approved the programs and ways and means projects for the coming year.

Board members and Mrs. Alvis Creech, principal, welcomed the teachers back to school at the second pot luck luncheon given in the school auditorium.

Two new fourth grade teachers were introduced: Mrs. Kay Woodruff and Miss Mercedes Vega. Marion White and Gertrude Crum were also welcomed back from sabbatical leaves.

The first association meeting will be held Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. for the convenience of fathers and working parents. This month's theme is "Understanding Our School." The faculty will be introduced.

Ways and means projects for the year will begin with a paper and rag drive Oct. 2, followed by the John Strong Circus Oct. 27, cookie and popcorn sales, reports Mrs. William Soady, chairman.

Schools Plan Variety Menus Next Week

A variety of menus, ranging from hot dogs to fish, are scheduled next week, Sept. 28 to Oct. 2, in Torrance elementary school cafeterias.

Meals, planned by trained dietitians, cost 30 cents; ice cream bars cost 6 cents. Those who bring lunches can buy milk for 4 cents as well as ice cream.

The weeks menus include: Monday: toastie hot dog, tomato and green bean medley, garden relishes, apple crisp, 1/2 pint of milk.

Tuesday: Salisbury steak, fluffy mashed potatoes with gravy, carrot and raisin salad, wheat bread and butter, California fruit cup, 1/2 pint milk.

Wednesday: chuck wagon beans, buttered golden carrots, creamy cole slaw, hot cornbread, ice cream cup, 1/2 pint milk.

Thursday: hobo buns, corn pudding, tomato and cucumber salad, apricots in syrup, 1/2 pint milk.

Friday: oven-grilled fish, tartar sauce, harvard beets, raisin bread and butter, tossed green salad, cantaloupe wedge and 1/2 pint of milk.

Thirty Men and a Gal, All Money-Hungry for $7000 'Chest' Quota

Thirty money-hungry men, and one money-hungry girl, met in Torrance last week to discuss ways and means of getting their hands on $7,000. Drawn from a widely-diverse range of businesses and professions, they were united in one important particular: zeal for a common

'Piers Beautiful' Contest Slated by Redondo C. of C.

Artists of the South Bay and surrounding area have been invited to help in the beautification of Redondo's Monstad and Horseshoe piers through a "Piers Beautiful" contest. Co-sponsored by the Pier Committee of the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce and the South Bay Arts Association, the "Piers Beautiful" Contest enables artists to submit their ideas for a central theme to decorate Redondo's two piers, and at the same time win prizes and recognition for their work.

Area campaign, the volunteers were given their goal for 1959-60 and were briefed on the fund-raising campaign.

Harbor Area leaders present at the meeting included Jim Becker, Area campaign chairman; Bert Lynn, Commerce and Industry chairman; and Harold Frantz, Torrance city chairman.

Quota Higher This Year Overall quota for Torrance in the Commerce and Industry section this year is higher than ever before. The figure the volunteers will shoot at is $7,112, which will come in donations from smaller business firms employing from 10 to 150 workers. Larger firms are the responsibility of the Los Angeles Chest office.

The men on whose shoulders will fall the burden of raising the bulk of the money will work in three teams under the direction of division chairman George Post, Scott Albright, and George Vico. Division quotas announced are: Post, $1,900; Albright, $2,295; and Vico, $649. In addition, Jim Becker and Bert Lynn have been set quotas of $1,028 and $1,240 respectively.

Total to be raised by all Chest divisions in the Los Angeles area is $11,300,000, nearly a million dollars more than was raised a year ago, when the target was the same. Finding the missing million, thought to have been lost in the recession last year, may be the key to the success of the whole campaign.

Four out of every five dollars raised will go to children.

All artists are invited to submit drawings, sketches and paintings showing how the Monstad and Horseshoe piers can look when remodeled. While existing concessions and buildings must be considered, the artists concept may indicate alterations to the piers of a major or minor nature. Submissions may be made in any art medium, using any Redondo pier setting, but must show at least two or more shops. Judging will be based on originality, best use of present pier structures, and artistic merit of the submission.

Prizes will include $15.00 first prize with two $5.00 honorable mention prizes. The pictures will be displayed on the Pier Dec. 5th and 6th, when the public will be invited to select their choice in open voting. A $10.00 prize will be given the popular vote winner.

The contest will begin Oct. 1, 1959. All submissions must be made to the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce, 101 West Diamond Street, Redondo Beach before midnight, Dec. 1, 1959.

'Y' Conference Caravan Is Postponed

The "Conference Caravan" for members of Harbor Area YWCA originally scheduled Wednesday from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m., has been postponed, according to Mrs. F. Harold Essert, chairman of the Volunteer Leadership Committee arranging the tour.

Mrs. Essert explained that the Conference Caravan, a new idea in this YWCA, was to have taken the group by bus from the Wilmington Branch through the Gardena area, to the Torrance Branch for lunch, to the San Pedro Branch and back to the Wilmington Branch. In addition to a program at each branch the plan was to have background material on the community while actually seeing the area.

"While a great deal of interest and enthusiasm has been shown, we feel that even a better program will be possible by postponing the event. A new date will be set by the Leadership Committee when they meet Tuesday," she stated.

Other committee members are Mrs. E. G. Croom, P. M. Crossman, G. Henry Green, Don C. Flake, Walter Hopson, Alfred Jorgensen, Floyd Latham, Owen Pharr, Lee Stamps, A. J. Stewart and Miss Ann Flower Throckmorton.

Personnel Manager

Michalda, who is personnel manager of Aronca Manufacturing Corporation, is in no way apprehensive at the prospect of being pitchforked into what is normally regarded as a male domain. She has done it all before. Back in Taunton, Mass., which was her home before coming to California three years ago, she was a "veteran" of more than one Community Chest campaign. Michalda has been assigned to division chairman Scott Albright's group.
